

DoubleTree Suites Hotel Houston by the Galleria

The Galleria is an upscale mixed-use urban development centrally located in the Uptown District of Houston, Texas. The 2.4 million square foot space includes 400 stores, making it the largest mall in Texas and the fourth-largest in the U.S. The Galleria was developed by Gerald D. Hines, opening in November 1970 and modeled after the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele in Milan, Italy. The mall is anchored by Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom, Saks Fifth Avenue, and Macy's. International guests and Houstonians alike make up more than 26 million visits each year to the Galleria. A full-size ice rink, state-of-the-art children's play area, two swimming pools, video arcade, 30 dining options, 12 beauty salons, post office. Mall Hours are: Monday to Saturday 10am-9pm; and Sunday 11am-7pm.

Our hotel is just 5 minutes from The Galleria and provides all the comforts of home while you embark on a shopping spree or weekend getaway.
