SKYCOCKTAILS

SKYLounge loves Leeds! We are extremely proud to be situated in the middle of this vibrant and historic city. Through our craft and imagination we bring a little bit of local culture to you. Whether you have travelled 10 or 1000 miles to get here, sit back and travel through local history with our innovative cocktails, sip by sip.

The Travellers Reward by SkyLounge

There is something special about a warm, yummy, chocolate chip cookie. It says "Welcome" in so many ways. That's why we give one to every guest as they check in. It's our way of showing you how much we care. What better way to enrich your stay than to sit back, relax and try our cookie flavoured cocktail high up in the clouds and let the world pass you by.

Makers Mark bourbon, Frangelico Hazelnut Liqueur, Vanilla Ice Cream and Cookie syrup.

The Golden Garden

2010 was a great year for the area's horticulture enthusiasts as the Hesco garden picked up a gold medal at the RHS Chelsea flower show. Today you can see it in Roundhay Park less than 5 miles away, or we can bring you a little bit of garden in a glass.

Peach Schnapps, Campari and grapefruit juice topped with Prosecco and a blossoming, edible flower in the centre of it all. Beautiful!

White Rose

A gin, spicy apple and lemon sherbet based liquid is topped off with a Pinot Grigio and elderflower foam to die for. Finished with a fruity spray in the shape of the Yorkshire rose - a true tribute to this great county!

Tanqueray gin, lemon sherbet, ginger and apple topped with Pinot Grigio and elderflower foam.

Ruby, Ruby, Ruby

Who could forget this catchy tune from Leeds' favourite indie sons, the Kaiser Chiefs? We promise the drink is just as memorable (and colourful!)

Ketel one Vodka, Coconut Rum, Grenadine, lemon and cranberry juice.

Yorkshire's Diamond

At a geographically important location and with truly pioneering citizens, Leeds, or Leodis as it once was, overtook York and cemented its place as the most influential city in Yorkshire during the early industrial age. Here's a big thank you to the likes of Benjamin Gott and Matthew Murray.

Ketel One Vodka, Rhubarb Liqueur, Aperol stirred and served on an ice diamond

Green Means Go!

Park row, the spine between City Square and the Headrow in Leeds, is today best known for its shops and restaurants. But in 1928 it was the scene of much ado and fanfare as Britain's first set of permanent traffic lights were installed. We commemorate this landmark with a truly unique drink - an amber, sweet tasting liquid served with two ice balls - one green and one red

Krupnik honey vodka, vanilla syrup, egg white, splash of tequila

Lady Lavender's Libation

Opened in 1878, the Grand Theatre is one of the city's most famous buildings. However if you hear the footsteps and smell this famous scent, beware, you could be in line to meet the (not so famous) ghostly resident....

Amaretto, Martini rosso, blackberries, cranberry juice, lavender syrup, egg white and lemon juice.

Bonnie Johnnie

In partnership with Johnnie Walker Red, this was the SkyLounge's offering at this year's Cocktails in the City at the Town Hall. Designed by our bartender Tomas, it went down a storm.

Johnnie Walker Red whisky, Drambuie, strawberry jam, lime juice and sugar syrup.
